

DATS'10
DESIGN, ART &
TECHNOLOGY
SYMPOSIUM

FOOD FOR THOUGHT Nourish roots. Cultivate ideas. Harvest change!

DOWNTOWN WINSTON-SALEM Saturday-Monday, October 9-11, 2010 / Milton Rhodes Center for the Arts / Sawtooth Building, 226 North Marshall Street, W-S NC 27101

Unless otherwise indicated, events are ticketed and offered in Reynolds Place at the Milton Rhodes Center for the Arts (MRCA). Onsite registration continues throughout the event. / The DESIGN EXPO is free and open to the public in Mountcastle Forum at MRCA. The main program will be webcasted and online media will be active throughout.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 9 Bring Your Own Mug!

- 10:00 OPENING RECEPTION Free and open to the public at Diggs Gallery, Winston-Salem State University
Food, Culture, and the Front Porch at Happy Hill and Further On - Belinda Tate, Diggs Gallery director
Re-inventing the Shotgun House - Larry Sass, MIT professor of architecture (participating via Skype)
- 12:00 DATS'10 Registration & Mug Shots at the Spruce Street entrance to the Milton Rhodes Center for the Arts
- 1:00 Appetizers
- 1:30 Perspectives on the Triad Where do we go from here and how can our creative community transport us? Nolo Martinez moderates as D.Yohannes, D.Quaintance, P.Mount, and L.Boney consider local, regional and global perspectives.
- 2:30 MashUp Potatoes, Please Tony McGee explores economic benefits of the Stokes County purple sweet potato; area cooks share delicious new recipes and tidbits.
- 4:00 Gelato Tasting As varied as the presenters to follow...
- 4:30 Pecha Kucha 20 images, 20 seconds each! Could you talk this fast?
- 6:00 Downtown Dinners Meals on your own – look for participating restaurants!

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 10 POWERS OF TEN DAY CREATIVE COUPLE PETER MARSH AND ALICIA HARDIN LEAD US INTO 10/10/10

- 10:00 What Were Those People Eating at the Picnic in Chicago – or Was It Miami?
Barbara Charles and Bob Staples show the classic film and offer remembrances of working with Charles and Ray Eames.
- 10:45 Eames Designs Then and Now
Patrick Lee Lucas moderates as Sarah Kuhn joins Barbara and Bob to consider broad-reaching influences of the Eames Office.
- 11:30 Powers of Food Picnic DIY - get ready to move!
10 Powerful Musicians in the Winston-Salem Shuffle accompany the setting of a scrumptious indoor picnic.
- 12:00-8:00 DESIGN EXPO - A Banquet Hall of Food for Thought - Free and open to the public in Mountcastle Forum
Area designers, artists, and technologists display creative works and invite conversation. Open to all!
- 1:00 DESIGN EXPO Meet'n'Greet AFTER WHICH, CREATIVE COUPLE DANIEL YOHANNES AND TRACY SAINTE MARIE LEAD US INTO THE EVENING
- 2:00 Powers of Light: Light is Food - Penny Chisholm, MIT ecologist and professor (Skype call facilitated by Norman Coates)
- 3:00 World Food in the Piedmont J.Dharod, D.Woodham, C.Rode, S.Morrison, A.J.Young on culinary cultures of our region
- 4:30 Gladis and Mabel and Scaling Chickens A skit by Art Tasting provides comic relief and raises consciousness about food sources and farming practices. Respondents include Carol Dykers. Eric Jackson and Sarah Kuhn with Suzana McCalley.
- 5:15 Downtown Dinners Meals on your own – look for participating restaurants
- 7:00 DESIGN EXPO Meet'n'Greet - Free and open to the public in Mountcastle Forum
- 7:00 Decaf & Dessert Get settled, get ready, get started...
- 8:00 Powers of Light: Light is the Food of Knowledge - Seth Riskin with holograms from the MIT Museum
- 10:00 10/10/10 Finis - Wear Something Special on Monday to reflect a position on the Transformation of the Triad

MONDAY, OCTOBER 11 Wear Something Special!

- 10:00-4:00 DESIGN EXPO - A Banquet Hall of Food for Thought - Free and open to the public in Mountcastle Forum
- 10:00 Urban Ag R.McReynolds, D.Leonard, J.Leonard, R.Fuller, D.Woodham and R.Powell consider the changing climate.
- 11:30 Experimental Community Design through Food from interactive kitchen to pies and conversation for dessert - B.Jones, J.Helton, G.Scheer and L.Frye use food as a centerpiece for growing social capital.
- 1:00 Experimental Lunch DIY - create, compare, eat and enjoy!
- 2:00 Transformation of the Triad: Common Threads S.Kuhn and C.Strohecker invite expressions through attire, words, and images; M.Collins and J.DeCristo engage discussion of individuals' economic development efforts and the future of DATS.
- 3:30 Hi-speed Slow-mo and Other Previews N.Hristov, N.Coates, J.LeBlanc, J.Semilian, and M.Davis display seeds of CDI's emerging motion capture capability and the Winston-Salem Light Project's large-scale outdoor projections.
- 4:00 A Parting Gift If you see the color purple in a field...

TICKETS are $15 for students and seniors, $30 all others. <http://2010.datstriad.org>